FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Adam Rogers Joins Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial Board of Directors

Johnstown, PA – September 18, 2024 – Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial is pleased to announce the appointment of Adam Rogers as a new member of the Board of Directors.

Born and raised in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, Adam graduated from Bishop McCort High School and earned his bachelor's degree in business with a focus on finance from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown. His career began at MetLife Insurance Company, where he advised customers on insurance and investment products. Adam then joined PNC Bank as an Accounting Analyst, where he honed his skills in banking and trained new hires.

In 2017, Adam transitioned to the BSA/AML department at PNC Bank, where he excelled as a Money Laundering and Financial Intelligence Detection and Investigation Analyst. His expertise in researching suspicious banking activity led him to 1st Summit Bank in 2019, where he served as a BSA/AML Senior Analyst. In 2022, Adam earned his CAMS certification and was promoted to Assistant Secretary and Assistant BSA Officer.

Adam's dedication to leadership and community service is evident through his participation in the John B. Gunter Leadership Initiative and his involvement in creating a successful youth hockey program. He is also an active supporter of the Special Olympics Pennsylvania.

Outside of work, Adam enjoys exercising, reading, cooking, and exploring America's National Parks and Monuments. He is an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan and enjoys
